Good but sometimes hilarious

By Foxy

I got this for some fun for me and my husband and while some of these can be very erotic others can be downright goofy and some can spark controversy, like the card that revealed to each one of us that our secret fantasy is having a three-way with members of the opposite sex. Finding out about an innocent fantasy like that didn't exactly bring us closer because the moment got tinged with jealousy.

Others are good. Some are hot and mildly kinky. Still more are hilarious, like this one (spoiler alert): I dare you to lay down naked and let me pour a big glass of water all over you. Sorry but picturing that makes me laugh really hard. Don't forget the mop! Another funny one: go to the kitchen and take the most outrageous picture you can. Haha, I see myself doing naughty things with pots, pans and bananas..... But to the credit of the author, goofiness and laughter are very important between the sheets.

These are gender neutral so same-sex couples can use them too.

Don't bother.

By Melissa Hagen

This product was a waste of money. Some of the dares were fun, maybe like two. But the majority are "truth" cards and they're all questions about the "crazy sex adventures" your partner has had WITH AN EX. Idk about other people but this was bout for me and my partners enjoyment, not to hear about sexual experiences I had with an ex.. Idk why that would even be put in there? Waste of money and poorly written cards.
