Tantalus delivers a tantalizing short.

By Tina

This little story from newcomer Tantalus delivers exactly what it promises. Short and sweet it isn't. It's short and sexy, short and steamy, short and sensuous, short and stimulating. For only 99 cents, it's a cheap thrill.

Pete had been watching Damon since he moved in next door, but neither of them expected to find out about each other what they did when Pete lost a bet to Damon. His prize was that he got to do anything he wanted to Pete.

There's not really a story, it's more of an interlude. The interlude is so hot, I didn't need the story. Sometimes you just want to read something quick, and Summer Heat is that. Here are a few key phrases and words to give you an idea of exactly what Tantalus has in store for you: pain and pleasure, bruising kisses, thick with muscle, I'd watched him, feel the sting, smell the power.

I'll bet you got a little turned-on just reading those. This is a must read, just don't read it in a crowded room or you'll have a lot of squirming to explain.
