highly recommended for the price you can't go wrong and it's nice to know what the mechanic talking when they trying to rob you

By Mrs. Filomeana Paresi Beale

love the book as mechanic can rob you blind this is a must have as I will be doing my own work on my own bike this year and years to come and if it has to go to the shop I will know what's wrong with it As I am lady and I don't like to be taking advantage of, S.I.N.Y.LADYRIDER

Clymer shop manual

By David Santee

I've bought Clymer manuals for every motorcycle I've ever owned, which is many.

As I like to do as much work on my bikes as possible, it's nice to have an illustrated step-by-step book to guide me through whatever I'm planning to do.

Clymers books are reasonably priced, on Amazon anyway, and well worth having, even if you're only going to do basic repairs.

Super Useful

By Jacquelyn

I've been using this to start working on my first bike ever. Everything is very clear and written in understandable terms. Organization is kind of strange, table of contents don't include page numbers, which I think is kind of strange...
