Crush your enemies (and your family) in Scrabble with this book

By David Sinick

Each summer, my extended family goes on a trip to Bethany Beach, Delaware, and each summer, I am reminded of my inferior scrabble skills when I am inevitably crushed by my mother & my uncle. After reading this book, and practicing some more on words with friends (using some of the techniques that Dave teaches), I can assure you that this summer, I will be the one doing the crushing. DO YOU HEAR ME MOM? I READ THIS BOOK AND I'M COMING FOR YOU!

Also, I will say that this book has helped me immensely when I'm procrastinating on words with friends, and just using his 97% rule for prefixes has already increased my average score significantly, and along with that, my win ratio. Should I probably spend more time working and less time playing scrabble on my phone? Yes. But with this book and my newfound improved skill, I'm not gonna lie, it's hard to stop.

If you are a scrabble / words with friends addict like me, and are tired of getting your butt kicked -- get this book. Vengeance shall soon be in your grasp.
