WOMEN OF THE PASSION, A JOURNEY TO THE CROSS BY KATIE SHERROD PDF

Women of the Passion offers readers a unique Lenten encounter. Women from Scripture who were transformed by their encounters with Jesus narrate the story of Christ's Passion through the traditional 14 Stations of the Cross. Readers will experience the Passion through the eyes of such women as the widow with the mite, the woman with the flow of blood, the bent-over woman, the woman taken in adultery, and, of course, Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Jesus. The book sets the stage with the anointing of Jesus by a woman, his denial by Peter as described by the High Priest's maid, and the dream of Pilate's wife. Then, Station by Station, readers accompany Jesus on his journey to the Cross. The book ends with Mary's wild grief over the loss of her son and the peace she finds as she places him in the tomb. Women of the Passion is perfect for Lenten retreats or as a Lenten program, especially during Holy Week. It is suitable for use by mixed groups of women and men, young and old.

Women Of The Passion, A Journey to the Cross

By Chan Cosans

This is an outstanding piece of literature! Thought-provoking, stirring, haunting, uplifting, spiritual...as well as beautifully written. I was/am so entranced with this work that I will read it repeatedly and be moved by new nuances in each story. This, to me, and all I have read or sent it to is a classic. Sincere thanks to the author, and publisher for bringing this to the masses.

Very moving

By John T. Smith

This is a very moving, spiritual depiction of the 14 stations of the Cross from a woman's viewpoint.

A Useful Set of Meditations for the Stations of the Cross

By kacey b

This literate and imaginative set of meditations offers another "take" on the Stations. They feature the women who were present and some emotions and thoughts they might well have had. These work well for a group's participation of the Stations and as individual reading and meditating
